

Election Year	Ballot Title Number	Registered Voters	Voter Turn Out	% of Voter Turn Out	YES	% in favor	NO	% Against	Difference between Votes For and Against	% of Difference between Votes For and Against
2012	2A	7045	5123	72.07%	2341	45.68%	2784	54.32%	443	9%
2013	2C	7205	2981	41.37%	1904	63.87%	1077	36.13%	827	27%
2013	2D	7205	2980	41.36%	1673	56.14%	1307	43.86%	366	12%

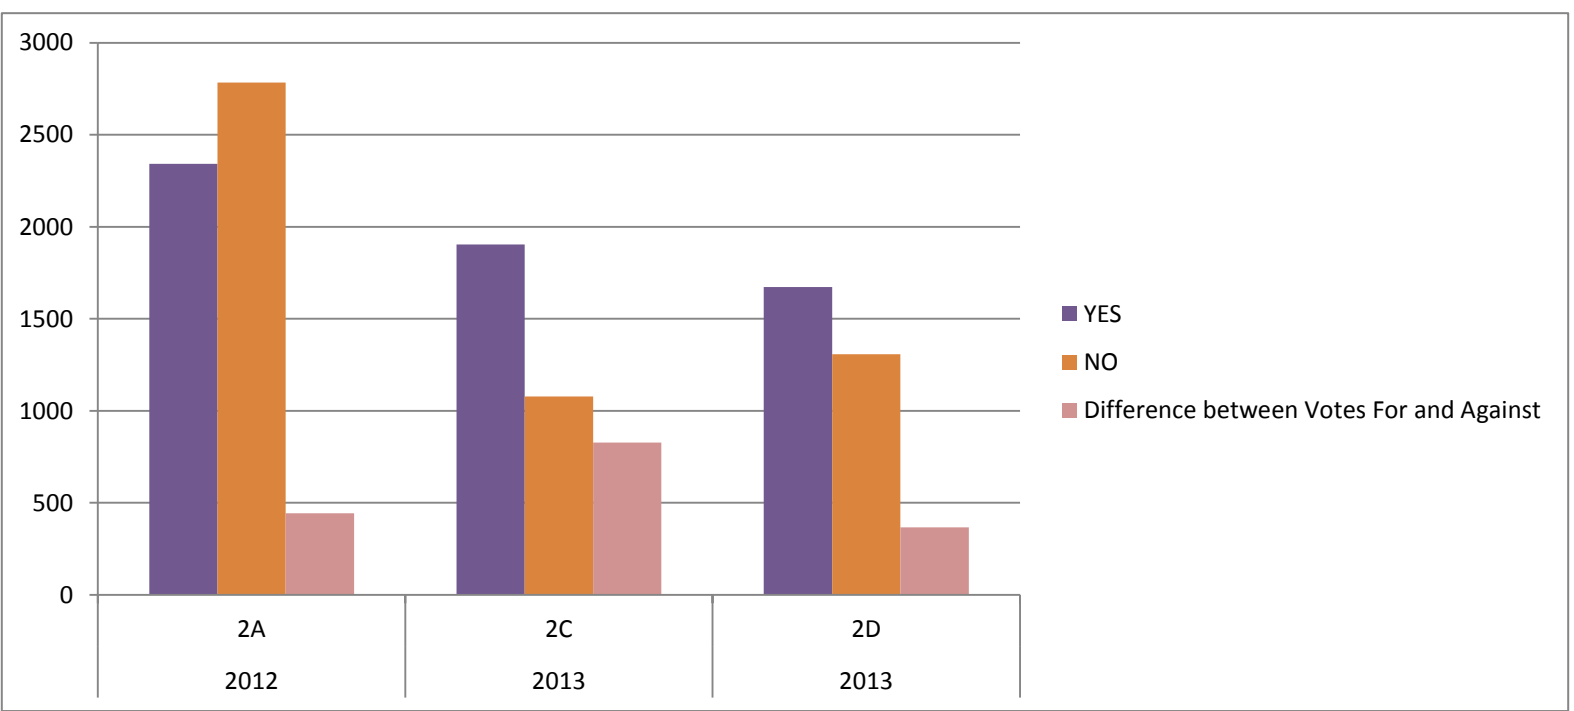

Chart 1

Overview:

Chart 1 illustrates the relationship between registered voters and voter turn out for the years 2012-2013. Based on the information provided, it appears that Firestone had 72.07% voter turn out in 2012 and an average of 41.36% voter turn out in 2013. In 2012, there was approximately 30% more voter turn out which can be attributed to the Presidential Election and Amendment 64.

Chart 2

Overview:

Chart 2 illustrates the relationship between the yes/no votes cast for each ballot question for the years 2012-2013. In 2012, the votes in favor of Ballot Issue 2A account for 2341 of the votes cast while the votes cast against account for 2784. The difference between votes in favor and against Ballot Issue 2A was 443. In 2013, the votes in favor of Ballot Issue 2C account for 1904 of the votes cast while the votes cast against account for 1077. The difference between votes in favor and against Ballot Issue 2C was 827. The votes in favor of Ballot Issue 2D account for 1673 of the votes cast while the votes cast against account for 1307. The difference between votes in favor and against Ballot Issue 2D was 366.

Chart 3

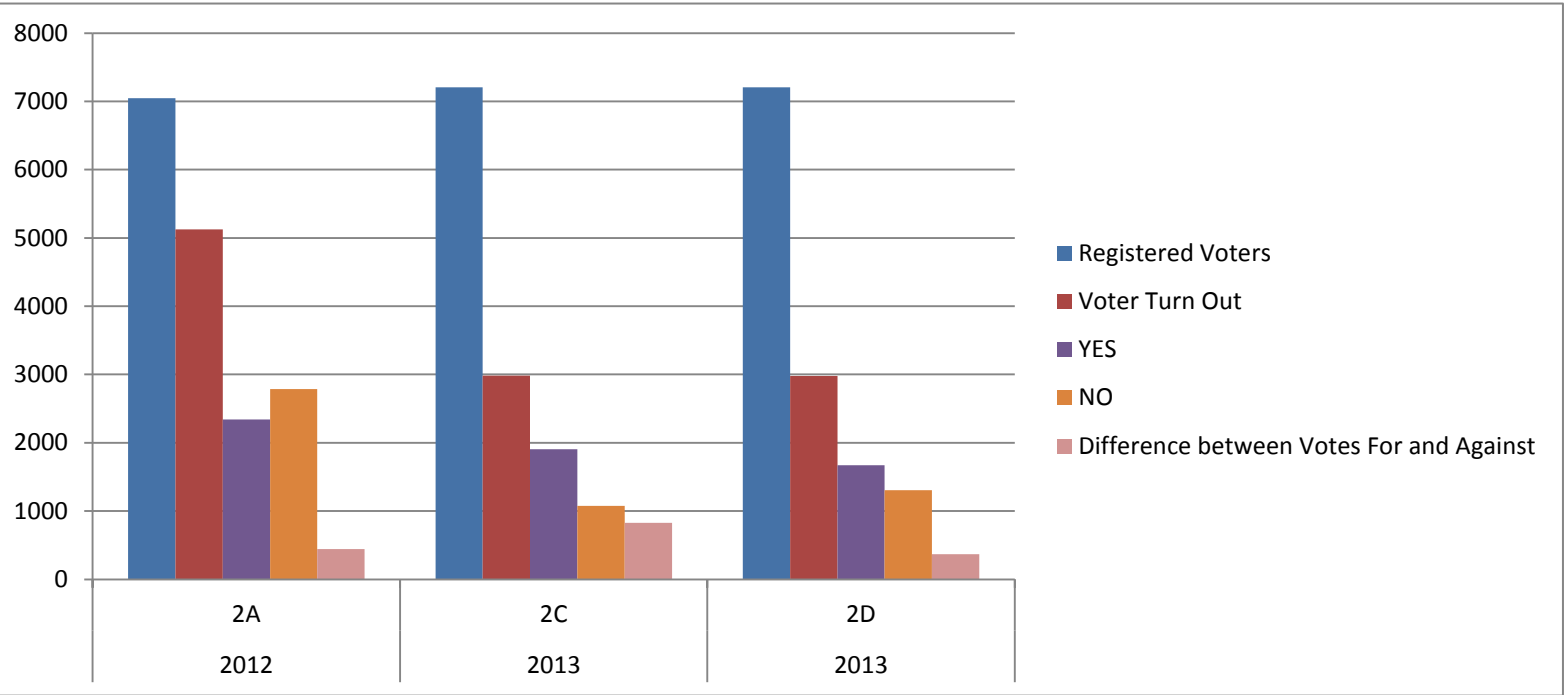

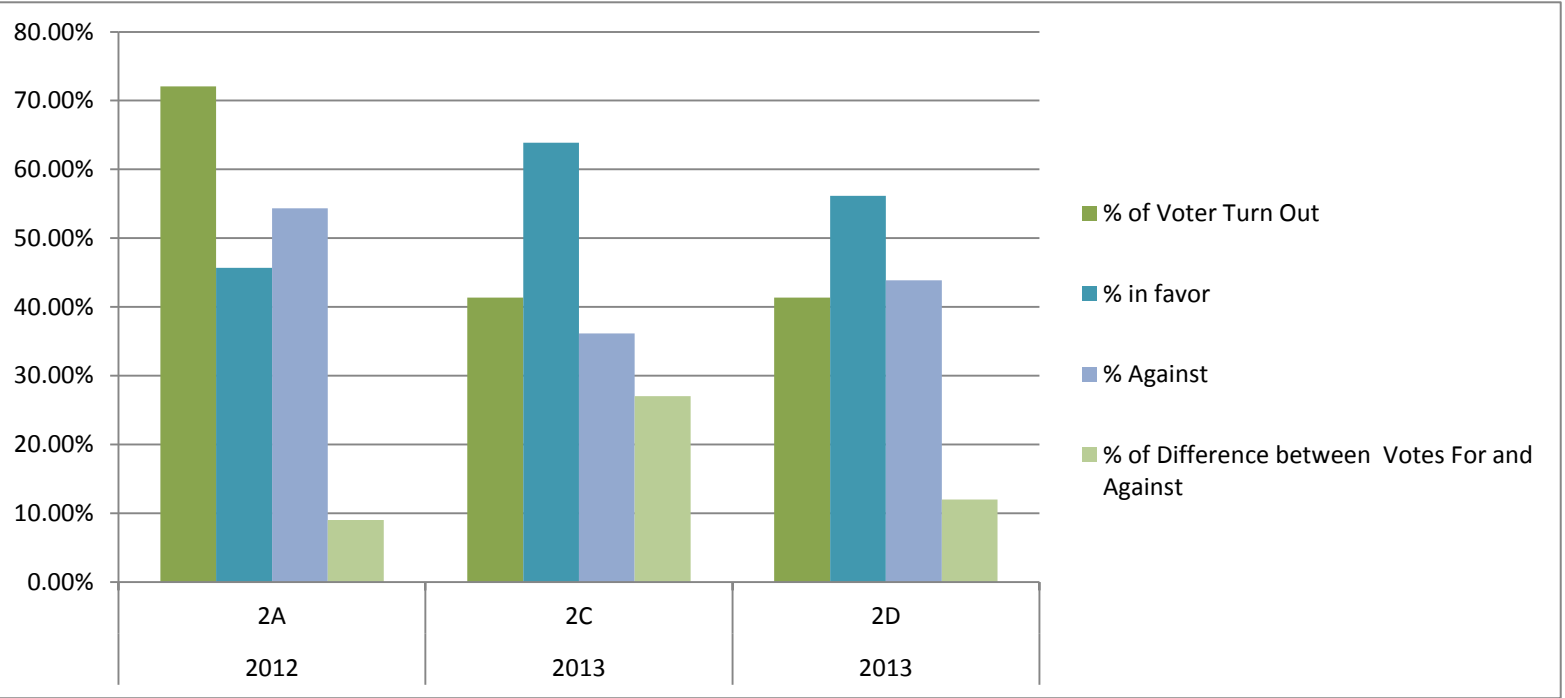

Chart 4

Overview:

Chart 3 illustrates the overall relationship between registered voters, voter turn out, votes cast in favor and against and difference between votes for and against Ballot Issues 2A, 2C and 2D for the years 2012-2013.

Overview:

Chart 4 illustrates the relationship between the percentages of voter turn out, votes cast in favor and against and the difference between votes in favor and against Ballot Issues 2A, 2C and 2D for the years 2012-2013. In 2012, 72.07% of the registered voters participated in the election with 45.68% in favor and 54.32% against Ballot Issue 2A. The percentage of difference between the votes in favor and against was 9%. In 2013, an average of 41.36% registered voters participated in the election with 63.87% in favor and 36.13% against Ballot Issue 2C and 56.14% in favor and 43.86% against Ballot Issue 2D. The percentage of difference between votes for and against Ballot Issue 2C was 27% while the percentage difference between votes for and against Ballot Issue 2D was 12%.